Working with a supportive, flexible employer

Thank you for your interest in joining the CBM UK team.

We are committed to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in all that we do. We are accredited as a Disability Confident Employer, a Living Wage Employer, a "We Show the Salary" Employer, and a supporter of the Age-Friendly Employer Pledge. These recognitions reflect our dedication to creating a fair, inclusive, and supportive workplace for everyone.

If you need any support or reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process, please don't hesitate to contact us at email us.

At CBM UK, you would be joining a very supportive and collaborative community, working with a friendly team who are incredibly passionate about their work. The wellbeing of our team is central to how we work. We encourage a healthy work-life balance, offering hybrid working up to 50% working from home. Part of what makes our organisation special is the collaborative culture we've cultivated, which relies on spending quality time together in the workplace, which enables the opportunity to build the strong relationships that are core to our team dynamic.

Our team benefit from excellent personal development opportunities and we can offer the chance to undertake fully paid training or study where appropriate.

CBM UK's main office is in central Cambridge. We have a wonderful and accessible modern office building which is located nearby to Stourbridge Common and the River Cam.

Respect and compassion are at the heart of all that we do, and this reflects in our culture. We are an organisation based on Christian values, welcoming staff of all faiths and none. It's the basis of why we do what we do, striving to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued, and respected. We do not proselytise, and we work with partners of all faiths and none, according to the greatest need.

Who we are

For over 115 years, CBM has been transforming lives around the world. We work with local partners, making sure people with disabilities in some of the world's poorest communities have access to healthcare, education and a future when they can thrive. And when a disaster strikes, we're there providing emergency relief and support to people with disabilities and helping communities recover and rebuild.

With 42 UK staff, we're part of a Global Federation working in 26 countries. This is a truly exciting time to join us as we embark on an ambitious new strategy, as we fight to end the cycle of poverty and disability.

Our Vision & Values

Our vision is an inclusive world in which all people with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential.

We Champion Inclusion

We challenge discrimination and embrace diversity. We work with people of all faiths and none and we strive to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued and respected.

We Strive for Justice

We challenge injustice and equip others to exercise their rights. We serve with compassion those in greatest need, regardless of race, gender, age or religious belief.

We Pursue Excellence

We creatively innovate and pursue continual improvement so that we can maximise our impact and bring about tangible change in the lives of those others leave behind.

We Embrace Partnership

We can achieve more when we work with others. We learn together with our partners, communicate respectfully and honestly, and we value everyone's unique contribution.

We Live with Integrity

We live responsibly and with honesty.

The Marketing Manager at CBM UK is a vital role and has responsibility for delivering CBM UKs digital and direct marketing plans to engage and inspire individual supporters and churches to support the work of CBM.

Working closely with the Head of Marketing, as part of the Public Fundraising team, the role holder will be responsible for the management and development of two Marketing Officers. Through digital and direct marketing, the Public Fundraising team are responsible for raising over £3m of unrestricted income from cultivation, acquisition, mid-value donors, regular giving, legacies and churches.

Key responsibilities

Fundraising campaign management (40%)

Manage the effective implementation of the annual public fundraising plan, ensuring that all activity is of a high standard, and delivered on time and to budget:

- Oversee cultivation fundraising appeals primarily carried out through direct mail and email, leading on the continued development of mass fundraising to engage both existing and potential supporters, including high donors, regular givers and church communities.
- Manage and develop CBM UKs donor acquisition activity in collaboration with the Marketing Officer (Acquisition), using channels such as social media, magazine inserts, press advertising, email and telephone.
- Oversee the delivery of CBM UKs legacy and in-memoriam giving plans and campaigns.
- Identify and consider new income streams and broaden the channels used currently for direct response campaigns to reach an agreed balance of long-term value versus risk.

Digital marketing (40%)

Grow digital engagement and income from new and existing supporters:

- Lead on Pay Per Click strategy, including agency management and development of internal capabilities.
- Oversee CBM UK's paid social media activity.
- Collaborate with the Communications Team to optimise the performance (traffic and income) of fundraising pages, including appeal and donation pages, churches and community, legacy, and in memoriam giving. Ensuring fundraising pages on the CBM website are engaging to existing and new audiences and where appropriate, utilising Search Engine Optimisation tools where appropriate.

- d. Explore and make use of new and existing digital platforms and partners, such as Dataro and SEMrush, while promoting a culture of testing, innovation and learning within the digital space.

Leadership and people management (10%)

- a. Support and inspire direct reports in line with CBM UK's staff management policies and procedures. Ensure team members are appropriately trained, briefed and motivated to achieve their objectives and meet targets and recruit to posts where relevant. Regular 121s and appraisal reviews.

Planning and reporting (10%)

- a. Monitor and report on fundraising appeals, identifying opportunities for future testing and optimisation, and contribute to the creation of annual planning, budgeting, and the setting of Key Performance Indicators (KPIs).
- b. Work closely with the Data and Insight team to ensure strong joint working on technical solutions related to campaign analysis, tracking and insights across digital systems, such as the website, donation platform and CRM (Salesforce).
- c. Plan, deliver and report on campaigns/projects within an agreed budget.

Other

- a. Ensure the consistent use of CBMs brand, key messages and style guide across all fundraising activities.
- b. Maintain awareness of and ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements related to direct marketing, including Fundraising Regulator guidance, and Data Protection legal requirements (GDPR and PECR).
- c. Collaborate with colleagues across CBM UK and the CBM Global Federation, to support integrated and partnership based working.
- d. Help foster a positive and inclusive culture of enthusiasm and success, reflecting the ambitions of CBM, and promoting positive working and innovation.
- e. Be willing to work occasionally outside normal office hours and to travel in the UK and internationally if required.
- f. Ensuring that the values of CBM UK are understood by external partners and always reflected in communications.
- g. Undertake other duties as required by the Head of Marketing and Director of Fundraising, Impact and Communications.
