Working with a supportive, flexible employer

Thank you for your interest in joining the CBM UK team.

At CBM UK, you would be joining a very supportive and collaborative community, working with a team who are incredibly friendly and passionate about their work. The wellbeing of our team is central to how we work. We encourage a healthy work-life balance, offer flexitime and up to 50% working from home. Our team benefit from excellent personal development opportunities and we can offer the chance to undertake fully paid training or study.

CBM UK's main office is in central Cambridge. We have a wonderful and accessible modern office building which is located nearby to Stourbridge Common and the River Cam.

Respect and compassion are at the heart of all that we do, and this reflects in our culture. We are an organisation based on Christian values welcoming staff of all faiths and none. It's the basis of why we do what we do, striving to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued, and respected. We do not proselytise, and we work with partners of all faiths and none according to the greatest need.

We are part of the UK Government Disability Confident Scheme as a Disability Confident Employer. We are working towards moving to the highest Disability Confident Scheme level of Disability Confident Leader.

Disability Confident organisations play a leading role in changing attitudes for the better. They're changing behaviour and cultures in their own businesses, networks and communities, and reaping the benefits of inclusive recruitment practices.

Who we are

For over 115 years, CBM has been transforming lives around the world. We work with local partners, making sure people with disabilities in some of the world's poorest communities have access to healthcare, education and a future when they can thrive. And when a disaster strikes, we're there providing emergency relief and support to people with disabilities and helping communities recover and rebuild.

With 42 UK staff, we're part of a Global Federation working in 29 countries. This is a truly exciting time to join us as we embark on an ambitious new strategy, as we fight to end the cycle of poverty and disability.

Our Vision & Values

Our vision is an inclusive world in which all people with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential.

We Champion Inclusion

We challenge discrimination and embrace diversity. We work with people of all faiths and none and we strive to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued and respected.

We Strive for Justice

We challenge injustice and equip others to exercise their rights. We serve with compassion those in greatest need, regardless of race, gender, age or religious belief.

We Pursue Excellence

We creatively innovate and pursue continual improvement so that we can maximise our impact and bring about tangible change in the lives of those others leave behind.

We Embrace Partnership

We can achieve more when we work with others. We learn together with our partners, communicate respectfully and honestly, and we value everyone's unique contribution.

We Live with Integrity

We live responsibly and with honesty.

Contract type	37.5 hours per week, 12 month Maternity Cover.
Reports to	Head of Philanthropy

Purpose

This vital role works alongside the Head of Philanthropy to help build and grow our philanthropic partnerships over the next five years and beyond. As well as building upon current relationships, you will identify, research and cultivate relationships with charitable Trusts and Foundations as well as major donors to raise both restricted and unrestricted income.

Responsibilities and areas of work

This important role will focus primarily on Trust Fundraising but will also encompass Major Donor Fundraising. It will seek to identify new high-level donors, as well to develop existing relationships with our generous supporters. Working closely with the Head of Philanthropy, other team members and external consultants, and in collaboration with our colleagues in the Programmes Team, the Senior Philanthropy Officer will focus on building our trust portfolio – with a focus on donors giving £5k - £100k per year

1. New business acquisition:

- a) Researching new individuals and trusts to build a prospect list for future funders, using our database (Salesforce), available lists and external databases. Assessing the potential for active, lapsed and prospective donors to support CBM and recording accordingly.
- b) Recommending tactical next steps for engagement with new individuals and trusts, for approval by the Head of Philanthropy.

2. Stewardship and cultivation of current and active donors:

- a) Developing and implementing tailored stewardship plans, so that individuals / trusts are engaged in a bespoke manner, and that application and reporting deadlines are met.
- b) Leading on the production and submission of applications, proposals and initial approaches (by post, email and, to a lesser degree, phone) and following up as required.
- c) Reporting to donors in a formal or informal way, as appropriate, to ensure they are kept up to date with CBM and project developments.

- d) Organising, facilitating and attending face-to-face and online meetings with high-level donors/ trusts, including organising dates and venues, and creating Meeting Briefs for all attendees to ensure positive outcomes.

3. Proposal and Report Writing

- a) Designing and crafting compelling proposals, reports, project timelines and budgets that meet the bespoke needs of donors whilst meeting the needs of CBM and our Programme delivery colleagues, within agreed deadlines.
- b) Working with members of the Programmes Team to ensure the accuracy of proposals / reports, and with members of the Fundraising & Communications Team to ensure consistency of messaging.
- c) Working with the Philanthropy & Partnerships Team to develop new projects/ themes/ appeals for potential projects.

4. Other Team Responsibilities:

- a) Helping to develop the Annual Forecast Budget for the Team, and providing updates on the pipeline and progress against targets.
- b) Ensuring all information, donor activity is recorded and kept up-to-date on our database to fully-inform any approaches / meetings.
- c) Providing proof-reading and copy-editing support to colleagues.
- d) Monitoring the activity of related organisations and the fundraising sector, identifying changes, predicting trends and making recommendations as necessary.
- e) Helping to develop a culture of enthusiasm and success, reflecting the ambitions of CBM, and promoting positive working and innovation.
- f) Ensuring that the values of CBM UK are understood by external partners and always reflected in communications.
- g) Carrying out any additional duties as required by the Head of Philanthropy and Director of Fundraising, Impact & Communications.
