Working with a supportive, flexible employer

Thank you for your interest in joining the CBM UK team.

We are committed to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in all that we do. We are accredited as a Disability Confident Employer, a Living Wage Employer, a "We Show the Salary" Employer, and a supporter of the Age-Friendly Employer Pledge. These recognitions reflect our dedication to creating a fair, inclusive, and supportive workplace for everyone.

If you need any support or reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process, please don't hesitate to contact us at email us.

At CBM UK, you would be joining a very supportive and collaborative community, working with a friendly team who are incredibly passionate about their work. The wellbeing of our team is central to how we work. We encourage a healthy work-life balance, offering hybrid working up to 50% working from home. Part of what makes our organisation special is the collaborative culture we've cultivated, which relies on spending quality time together in the workplace, which enables the opportunity to build the strong relationships that are core to our team dynamic.

Our team benefit from excellent personal development opportunities and we can offer the chance to undertake fully paid training or study where appropriate.

CBM UK's main office is in central Cambridge. We have a wonderful and accessible modern office building which is located nearby to Stourbridge Common and the River Cam.

Respect and compassion are at the heart of all that we do, and this reflects in our culture. We are an organisation based on Christian values, welcoming staff of all faiths and none. It's the basis of why we do what we do, striving to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued, and respected. We do not proselytise, and we work with partners of all faiths and none, according to the greatest need.

Who we are

For over 115 years, CBM has been transforming lives around the world. We work with local partners, making sure people with disabilities in some of the world's poorest communities have access to healthcare, education and a future when they can thrive. And when a disaster strikes, we're there providing emergency relief and support to people with disabilities and helping communities recover and rebuild.

With 40 UK staff, we're part of a Global Federation working in 26 countries. This is a truly exciting time to join us as we embark on an ambitious new strategy, as we fight to end the cycle of poverty and disability.

Our Vision & Values

Our vision is an inclusive world in which all people with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential.

We Champion Inclusion

We challenge discrimination and embrace diversity. We work with people of all faiths and none and we strive to build a just and equitable world in which all people are included, loved, valued and respected.

We Strive for Justice

We challenge injustice and equip others to exercise their rights. We serve with compassion those in greatest need, regardless of race, gender, age or religious belief.

We Pursue Excellence

We creatively innovate and pursue continual improvement so that we can maximise our impact and bring about tangible change in the lives of those others leave behind.

We Embrace Partnership

We can achieve more when we work with others. We learn together with our partners, communicate respectfully and honestly, and we value everyone's unique contribution.

We Live with Integrity

We live responsibly and with honesty.

Reports to	Head of Marketing

The Marketing Officer/Senior Marketing Officer (Acquisition) at CBM UK is an important role in making our life-changing work possible. Advertised at Officer or Senior Officer level (subject to experience), the role delivers direct and digital marketing communications to grow awareness, and recruit and engage with new long-term CBM supporters, through creative and impactful fundraising communications.

Key responsibilities:

The position holder is responsible for developing and delivering fundraising campaigns that will engage with CBM target individual audiences; supporting the development of the annual public fundraising plan; building supporter journeys and testing new channels and messages.

Working closely with the Head of Marketing and across the Fundraising & Communications team to plan, coordinate and deliver donor acquisition appeals to recruit new individual supporters, using a variety of direct and digital marketing channels.

Regular giving (mostly monthly Direct Debits) are a large part of CBMs donor acquisition activity, and as such, part of this acquisition role is the planning and co-ordination of regular giving conversion, recruitment, retention, and upgrade campaigns.

Donor Acquisition (30%)

- a. Working alongside the Head of Marketing and external agencies to plan and deliver a supporter recruitment programme, using channels that may include, but not limited to, inserts, press adverts, and door drops. email, paid social media adverts, Pay Per Click Google adverts, and lead generation activities.
- b. Optimise the performance (traffic and income) of website fundraising pages, including appeal landing pages and donation platforms. Ensuring pages on the CBM website are engaging to existing and new audiences and utilising Search Engine Optimisation tools.
- c. Plan and coordinate an off-line and online welcome journey for new supporters to CBM, that will encourage ongoing engagement and long-term support.
- d. Develop excellent working relationships with existing and new agencies and suppliers, including marketing agencies, writers, designers, print suppliers and mailing houses. Source new agencies and suppliers as appropriate.

Regular Giving (20%)

- a. As part of the regular giving retention plan, deliver inspiring direct and digital marketing communications and updates to monthly supporters about CBMs work and the people their gifts are supporting. This can involve creating briefs, working alongside freelance copywriters and designers, and managing print and fulfilment suppliers.
- b. Working alongside our inhouse Supporter Relations team and external telephone fundraising agencies to co-ordinate regular giving conversion, upgrade and retention campaigns over the telephone.
- c. Deliver, test and refine a welcome and ongoing donor journey for regular giving supporters, across digital, post and phone channels, to update and thank supporters.

Legacy and In-Memoriam Giving (20%)

- a. Work alongside the Head of Marketing and Senior Supporter Relations Officer to develop marketing plans for legacy and in-memoriam giving.
- b. Responsible for legacy and in-memoriam giving direct mail and email appeals, and work alongside the Communications Team to ensure the legacy and in-memoriam giving website pages inspire new and existing supporters to support CBM in these ways.

New product testing (20%)

- a. Test and develop new fundraising ideas, channels and messages to engage with and raise funds from new and existing audiences.
- b. Maintain an awareness and anticipation of charity sector trends relating to direct marketing and keep abreast of competitor activities to enable CBM to respond and adapt quickly where appropriate.

Planning and reporting (10%)

- a. Analysis and reporting of appeals and projects, providing learnings that will enable informed decision making around future activity.
- b. Develop a good knowledge of the CRM system (Salesforce) and ensure appropriate recording and reporting of direct marketing activity.

Other

- a. Ensure the consistent implementation of CBMs brand, key messages and style guide in fundraising activities.
- b. Awareness of, and compliance across direct marketing, of Fundraising Regulator and Data Protection legal requirements (GDPR and PECR).
- c. Work with other teams, including the CBM Global Federation, to maximise collaboration opportunities and integrated working.
- d. Help develop a culture of enthusiasm, continual improvement and success which reflects the ambitions of CBM UK.
- e. Occasional out of normal office working hours. Occasional travel in the UK and possibility of travel internationally.
